GEISHA GIRL

DR 05/23

Written by Lawton Williams &
Recorded by Hank Locklin in 1957

Key: D Start Note: A Time: 4/4 Strum: D_ du D_ du

Intro: D / / / A7 / / / D / / / D↓ (2,3)

D G
1. Have you ever heard a love song, that you didn't under-stand
D A7
Where you met her in a teahouse, on the Island of Japan
D G
And have you ever traveled over, many thousand miles
D A7 D D / /
To see a pretty Geisha Girl, dressed in Oriental style

CHORUS

G D A7 D
They read it in the tealeaves and it's written in the sand
G D A7
I found love by the heart full, in a foreign distant land
D G
Tell the home folks that I'm happy, with someone that's true, I know
D A7 D
I love a pretty Geisha Girl, where the ocean breezes blow.

D G
2. I have stood and watched the sun rise, from the waters of the sea
D A7
And wondered how much beauty, in this whole world can there be
D G
My dreams are all worth dreamin', and it makes my life worth while
D A7 D
To see my pretty Geisha Girl, dressed in Oriental style.

CHORUS

G D A7 D
They read it in the tealeaves and it's written in the sand
G D A7
I found love by the heart full, in a foreign distant land
D G
Tell the home folks that I'm happy, with someone that's true, I know
D A7 D D arpeggio
I love a pretty Geisha Girl, where the ocean breezes blow.