                        (divide the group in 2: one sings red; one sings blue)
      Oh, when the sun beats down and burns the tar upon the roof—
      And your shoes get so hot you wish your ti-red feet were fire-proof-
      Un-der the bo-oard-walk——- down by the sea—e—-yeah
      On a blanket with my ba—by..... is where I'll—-be-
            CHORUS:
            Un-der the board-walk, out of the sun
            Under the board-walk, we'll be having some fun
            Under the board-walk, people walking a--bove
                        G
            Under the board-walk, we'll be falling in love
                        Am↓ Am↓
                                        Am↓ Am↓
            Under the board-walk, .....board-walk!!!
                                                           G7
      From a park you can hear the happy sound of a car-ou-sel.
                                                                 C7
      You can al-most taste the hot-dogs and french fries they sell.
      Under the board-walk— down by the sea—e-
                                                  -e—yeah,
      On a blanket with my ba-by .....is where I'll be-
            CHORUS:
                        Am
            Un-der the board-walk, out of the sun
            Under the board-walk, we'll be having some fun
            Under the board-walk, people walking a--bove
            Under the board-walk, we'll be falling in love
                        Am \downarrow Am \downarrow
                                       Am \downarrow Am \downarrow
            Under the board-walk, .....board-walk!!!
