wh09/23

words & music by Wiley Walker and Gene Sullivan -1940

Key: D    Start note: A    Time: 4/4    Strum: D _ du D _ du

Intro: G /// A /// D /// D↓

CHORUS:

N/C          D    A7
When my blue moon turns to gold a-gain,
D
When my rainbow turns the clouds a-way,
A7
When my blue moon turns to gold a-gain,
G                  A                  D    D↓
You`ll be back with in my arms to stay.

1.                  D    A7
Memories that linger in my heart,
D
Memories that make my heart grow cold,
A7
But someday they`ll live again sweetheart,
G                  A                  D    D↓
And my blue moon a-gain will turn to gold

CHORUS:

N/C          D    A7
When my blue moon turns to gold a-gain,
D
When my rainbow turns the clouds a-way,
A7
When my blue moon turns to gold a-gain,
G                  A                  D    D↓
You`ll be back with in my arms to stay.

2.                  D    A7
The lips that used to thrill me so,
D
Your kisses were meant for only me,
A7
In my dreams they live again sweetheart,
G                  A7                  D    D↓
But my blue moon is just a memory.

CHORUS:

N/C          D    A7
When my blue moon turns to gold a-gain,
D
When my rainbow turns the clouds a-way,

When my blue moon turns to gold a-gain,
You`ll be back with in my arms to stay.

3. The castles we used to build together,
Were the sweetest stories every told,
Maybe we will live them all a-gain,
And my blue moon again will turn to gold.

CHORUS:

When my blue moon turns to gold a-gain,
When my rainbow turns the clouds a-way,
When my blue moon turns to gold a-gain,
You`ll be back with in my arms to stay.

OUTRO: (slowly) And my blue moon again will turn to gold
