NAVAJO RUG

words & music by Ian Tyson & Tom Russell (1987)

fk 11/23

Key: G Time: 4/4 Strum: D du D du Start note: D Intro: G / / / Em / / / C / / / D / / / D↓ Am Well it's two eggs up on whiskey toast, home fries on the side Wash it down with the road house coffee, it burns up your insides Just a Canyon-Colorado Diner and a wai-tress I did love $\mathsf{D}\mathsf{1}$ I sat in the back 'neath an old stuffed bear and a worn out Navajo rug! G Am Well, old Jack, the boss, he left at six, then it's "Katie, bar the door" She'd pull down that Navajo rug, and she'd spread it 'cross the floor Am Hey, I saw lightnin' cross the sacred mountains, saw the dance of turtle doves When I's lyin' next to Katie, on that ol' Navajo rug Chorus: Em Ai—yi— yi, Katie, shades of red and blue Em Ai—yi—-yi, Katie, what-ever became of the Navajo rug and you? Katie, shades of red and blue G Am Well, I saw old Jack about a year ago, he said, "the place burned to the ground And all I saved was this old bear tooth, and Katie, she's left town Ah, but Katie, she got her souvenir, too," Jack spat a tobacco plug, "Well, you should have seen her coming through the smoke A-draggin' that Navajo rug"

