

DON'T LET THE OLD MAN IN

By Toby Keith (2018)

NE,DE12/23

Key: D    Starting Note: F#

Time: 4/4

Strum: D _ du _u du

Intro: D /// D /// D /// D ///

Picking: 4,3,2,1, _4,3,2

/    D                    D                    G                    G //

Don't let the Old Man in            I wanna live it some more

/    A7                    A7                    D                    D //

Can't leave it up to him            He's knocking on my door.

/    D                    D                    G                    G //

And I knew all of my life            that some-day it would end

/    A7                    A7                    D                    D //

Get up and go outside            Don't let the Old Man in.

/    G                    G                    D                    D /

Many moons I have lived.            My body's with-ered and worn

/    /                    E7                    E7                    A7

Ask yourself how old would you be,            if you didn't know the day you

A7↓
were born.

D                    D                    G                    G //

Try to love on your wife,            and stay close to your friends.

/    A7                    A7                    D                    D //

Toast each sundown with wine.            Don't let the Old Man in.

(Hum the verse)

/    D                    D                    G                    G //

Don't let the Old Man in.            I wanna live it some more

/    A7                    A7                    D                    D //

Can't leave it up to him.            He's knocking on my door.

/    G                    G                    D                    D /

Many moons I have lived.            My body's with-ered and worn

/    /                    E7                    E7                    A7

Ask yourself how old would you be,            if you didn't know the day you

A↓
were born.

/    D                    D                    G                    G /

When he rides up on his horse,            and you feel that cold bitter wind

/    /    A7                    A7                    D                    D //

Look out your win-dow and smile,            don't let the Old Man in.

/    A7                    A7                    D                    D↓

Look out your window and smile,            don't let the Old Man in.