RAMBLIN' ROSE

written by Noel Sherman & Joe Sherman (music) (1962)   wh 03/24
popularized by Nat King Cole (1962)

Key: G   Start Note: D   Time: 4/4   Strum: d_du d_du

Intro: D7 / / /   D7 / / / G / / / G↓

```
     N/C          D7            G     G
  1. Ram…blin' rose, ramblin' rose
               A7              D7    D7 /
     Why you ramble…no one knows
      G7    /   C                    G
     Wild and wind-blown, that's how you've grown
               D7              G        G
     Who can cling to a ramblin' rose?

             D7           G  G
  2. Ram..ble on, ramble on
               A7              D7     D7 /
     When your ram..blin' days are gone
      G7    /   C            G        G
     Who will love you, with a love  true?
               D7              G /  C  /  G
     When your ramblin' days are gone?

             D7            G     G
  3.  Ram…blin' rose, ramblin' rose
          A7              D7     D7 /
     Why I want you, heaven knows.
      G7     /  C           G           G
     Though I love you, with a love  true
               D7                G        G
     Who can cling to….a ramblin' rose?
```

Outro:

```
             D7            G
     Ram…blin' rose, ramblin' rose
          A7              D7     D7 /
     Why I want you, heaven knows
     G7      /  C           G         G
     Though I love you, with a love  true,
               D7                G      G(arp)
     Who can cling to….a ramblin' rose?
```